

M. D. Friedman

M. D. Friedman is a poet, musician, digital artist and publisher living in Lafayette, Colorado. He has published five chapbooks of his own poetry, was the winner of the New Zealand Poetry Society Poetry Contest in 2008 as well as several regional poetry awards and has been published on the internet and in small press magazines. His new genre of digital poetry represents the artistic fusion of all his creative pursuits. He is also the founder of the Internet Poets' Cooperative website and executive editor for Liquid Light Press specializing in publishing chapbooks of poetry for the heart.

His award-winning digital art has appeared in numerous juried shows around the region. M. D.'s Visual Mantra Collection features over 20 fine art mandalas combining original healing art and music to produce specific healing effects.

M. D.'s musical recordings include over 30 albums featuring his original songs and compositions. He currently performs under the stage name of "Mad Dog" with Mad Dog Blues, the Jenn Cleary Duo, The Astral Project and Verses the Inevitable.

Read the Loveland Reporter Harold's article, "The multiple artistic talents of M.D. Friedman." His personal website, www.mdfriedman.com, offers access to all of M. D. Friedman's creative ventures.